PHYSICAL SECURITY DIVISION

HIGHLIGHTS FOR JUNE 1975

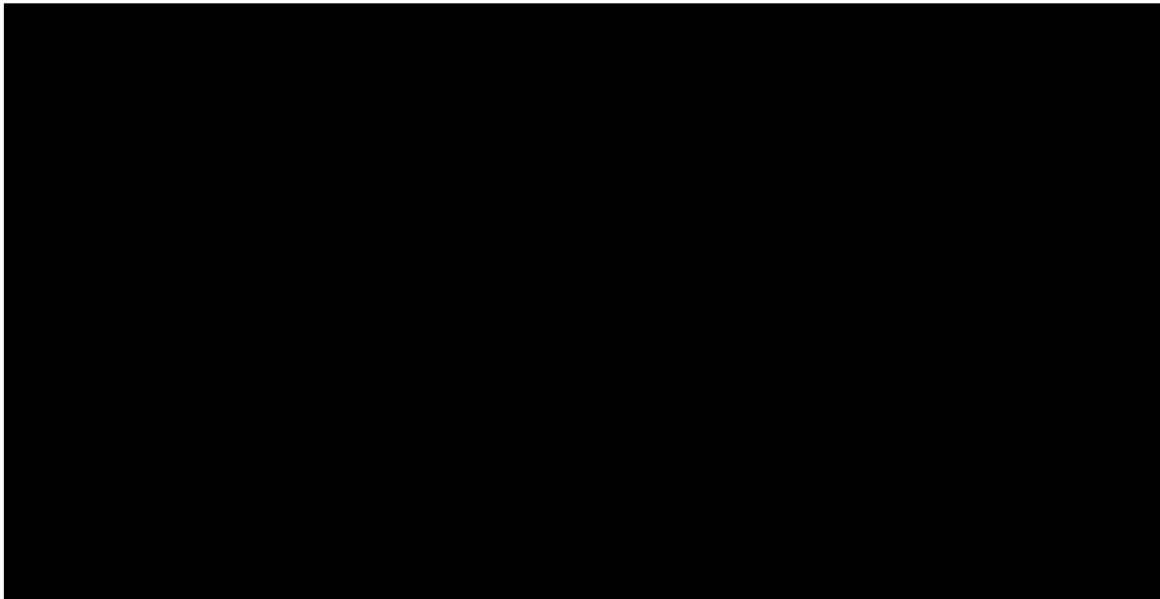

During the month of June security briefings were provided, at a suitable site away from the Headquarters

25X1A

A representative of the Division presented a one hour briefing on the security officer's responsibilities overseas, to the students of the Field Administration Course, sponsored by the Office of Training. This course is designed for personnel who will have manifold duties related to finance, logistics, travel, personnel and security functions at a small overseas Station. Besides detailing basic security safeguards regarding office routine, the means for obtaining professional security support in the field, through Regional Security Staffs or from Headquarters, was emphasized.

During this reporting period, Division personnel rendered assistance in processing the following groups for various meetings and conferences at the Headquarters Building: Presidential Classroom for Young Americans, three [REDACTED] visitors; twelve visiting students and faculty members of the Federal Executive Institute, Charlottesville, Virginia; 25 visitors for an NSA group meeting; 25 visitors for a Mid Career Group meeting and luncheon; 11 visitors for an Honor and Merit Awards Ceremony; 26 college students from the State of South Carolina, under the sponsorship of Senator Strom Thurmond; 41 students and faculty members from American University.

During this reporting period the following Capitol Hill support was provided:

a. On 4 June the security support was rendered to the DD/S&T who appeared before the House and Urban Development Independent Agencies Subcommittee, Senate Committee on Appropriations.

b. On 11 June security support was rendered to the DCI during his appearance before the Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee and the House International Relations Committee.

c. On 23 June security support was provided the DCI during his briefing of the Hamilton Group, a special Congressional group, Chaired by Lee Hamilton of Indiana.

During this reporting period, special emphasis was devoted to completing inspections of Agency facilities in the Washington Metropolitan area which had not been inspected within FY 75. This included comprehensive safety inspections of fifteen (15) facilities, plus cursory inspections of four facilities, in addition to inspecting the corridors and stairways of the Headquarters Building.

During this period four suspect packages were radio-graphed inspected and declared safe by the Safety Branch. Federal Protective Officers found three of the packages, two in a corridor in the Headquarters Building and one outside, near the south cafeteria entrance. One package was declared suspect by the Mail and Courier Branch, Office of Logistics. A total of twenty-six (26) suspect items have been processed by the Safety Branch during CY 1975.
